Blasquez, who distinguished himself as a regional director over the last eight years, joined Rent-A-Center as a delivery driver in 1998. He ascended through the ranks, managing three different stores, then a district, before being tapped to oversee a key region.

Reporting to Executive Vice President Jeff White, Blasquez is now charged with oversight of an 11-state division of approximately 500 stores located throughout the country's mid-section, south of Iowa.

"With a proven grasp of our operational practices in varied positions of increasing responsibility, Anthony brings to bear key institutional knowledge," said White. "We're delighted to have him assume this important role."
